

Casting call to join Friendly Fire

Physical, musical and verbal improvisation collective.

[Please forward to relevant contacts/network.]

You:

- Stage presence;
- voice projection;
- fluent gibberish or the dedication to get there soon;
- the capacity to listen and to work with other people;
- the understanding that a scene is to be found in the space, not in our heads;
- dance and/or musical experience of any tradition welcome;
- being free most Friday evenings to practice in North London essential;
- being free some evenings to perform;
- all age, sex, race and background welcome.

Us

Profit share, ambitious, adventurous, path finders.

Looking for performers (dancer, actor, musician, puppeteers...) and student-performers. See: <http://www.imprology.com/friendlyfire.html>

If interested please send motivations for joining, tiny bio and estimate of Fridays you have free from September to December 2009, to: FFauditions@imprology.com. Successful applicants will be invited to audition.
